

“All kids need is a little help,
a little hope, and somebody who believes in them.”
- Magic Johnson

Coach “Moe” brings a wealth of basketball knowledge and experience and is ready to help the girls & boys of Staten Island reach their maximum potential.

Whether you are just starting out or trying to make your high school team, these camp sessions provide a hard-working and fun environment for the players to better their basketball skills.

During camp, the players will be working on all facets of basketball skill training, including: passing, dribbling, shooting, defense, agility, strength and conditioning as well as the development of team concepts

Camp Director Maureen “Moe” Hannafin

Coach “Moe” spent 17 years as the Head Coach at her alma mater, Notre Dame Academy, where she led the Gators to 236 wins while helping guide 17 of her players to college scholarships and an impressive 75 percent of players to National Honor Society status. In 1997, she was named The New York Daily News Coach of the Year.

In 2006, she began a six-year tenure as an Assistant Women’s Basketball Coach at her other alma mater, Wagner College. A star player at Notre Dame herself, Moe was a 1,000-point scorer and two-time Staten Island Advance and New York Daily News All-Star.

Through hard work, discipline, hustle and heart, she developed into the NEC Player of the Year in 1989, when she led the Wagner women’s basketball team to the school’s only NEC title.

Meet The Coaching Team:

John Hannafin - Moe’s husband of 34 years, he served as Associate Head Coach of the Notre Dame Academy girls basketball team for 16 seasons before beginning a two-year term as head coach from 2006-08. In his first season as head coach, in 2006-07, he guided the Gators to the school’s first-ever New York State Federation Title in Glens Falls, NY. For his efforts, he was named The New York Daily News Coach of the Year. The Hannafins reside in Westerleigh with their sons John (26) and Steven (23).
